My Dear friends and creative thinkers,

Being in the State Surrender
"When prayer is all you have,
then there is no conflict"

If you let the term 'surrender' conjure up a picture in your mind of blood-stricken soldiers with raised arms on a grassy battlefield, then you have not understood that all present-day strife is about fighting the deluded self in the inner domains.

When this wisdom is perceived and percolated down the mind, it will be the beginning of the demise of all conflict for land, physical warring, and wanton destruction of life and property. Until then man will remain self-embattled - carry on playing with toy guns and continue to see challenges and rivalries.

It is the man's way of living and perceptions of life that creates economic, personal and social strife rendering him helpless in the matters of raising children, compulsions to comply and keep up with the world, daily wrangles with spouse and relatives, inadequate income or social status, so on. Striving daily to break free from the fetters of his misguided mind, the man is sapped of all his energy.

Finally, in a state of surrender, he says 'I want help from the Divine'. It is not a sign of the acceptance of defeat, but of the ego coming to accept that it has come to the end of the road, and now has to dissolve itself. It is the end of its reign and ushering in the innermost latent wisdom gifted by a higher source.

Ascending into a state of surrender is an evolutionary root-and-branch cleansing process. It is about taking stock of life and letting go of what does not resonate with you. It leads to the demolition of the illusions of the ego. Then suddenly there is an awakening that you are in the company of a Presence, a knowing that you are never alone in life. This Presence is a carrying, inspiring force like the flow of a river to which you yield the self. Thereafter, nothing belongs to you, not even your thoughts. There is no fear or anxiety about any outcome, for your life journey is now an endless river. This is veritable surrender, the absence of all conflict, any attachment, and any fear – only blissful living!!!!

Be a shipment of good omens.
